

CRIMSON BLUE '60

The Senior Class of Cordova High School
Cordova, Alabama

Presents
The 1959-60 Edition

Crimson-Blue

We the graduating class of 1960 consider it a privilege to pay tribute to our friend and principal, Mr. Wilburn Hudson, by dedicating to him our entire annual, the Crimson-Blue.

One cannot associate with Mr. Hudson without absorbing some of his patience, his wisdom, and his faithfulness in the performance of duty. He has become a symbol of truth, humility, and integrity to us.

We will ever be thankful that we were among the great number privileged to be under his leadership during the years at Cordova High; therefore, it is with deepest admiration that we dedicate this, our 1960 Annual, to our beloved principal, Mr. Wilburn Hudson.

Football Summary

The Cordova Blue Devils opened their season on home territory by defeating Parish 20-6.

Cordova, in her second game, was forced to accept defeat by her host, Dora, when in the last three minutes of the game Dora scored, ending the game 12-6 in their favor.

The Blue Devils' scoring gave Carbon Hill one of their major upsets of the season when the hard fought gridiron battle ended with the Blue Devils scoring 37 and Carbon Hill 14. This was the first defeat of Carbon Hill by the Blue Devils since 1954.

The Blue Devils journeyed to Pell City the following week to run up against one of the best teams of the state. The Panthers, of Pell City, won the game with a 25-6 score.

Curry was next on the slate for the Blue Devils. This was a week of victory for the Blue Devils. At the closing of the game the scoreboard read Cordova 14, Curry 0.

The game that is looked forward to by the Blue Devils is the Cordova-Walker game. Walker won this game 33-13.

Cordova, in her homecoming game with Oakman, met a team of equal strength. This evenly fought game ended with a 7-7 score.

After having been defeated last year by the Martin Warriors, the Blue Devils were out for revenge. This battle ended with a score of 12-0 in Cordova's favor.

The last and most exciting game of the season for the Blue Devils was the game with Double Springs. In the last minute, the Blue Devils were trailing by the score 36-26. Then in rapid succession the Blue Devils scored two thrilling touchdowns, winning the game 38-35.
